

Lifelong Literacy Breakfast

WASHTENAW LITERACY

Thursday, April 11, 2024

8:30-10:00am

Washtenaw Golf Club
2955 Packard Road
Ypsilanti, MI

Featuring Keynote Speaker

Dr. Bill Pink

President,
Ferris State University

Join us in welcoming Dr. Bill Pink, who became the first president of color of Ferris State University in 2022. Dr. Pink is a dynamic and inspirational speaker who will talk about the power of education, the importance of providing opportunities to ensure success for learners at all levels, and the interconnection between literacy and equity. You won't want to miss it!

Please RSVP to tscherniwetz@washtenawliteracy.org by Tuesday, March 26, 2024, and be sure to include any food allergies, dietary restrictions or any accommodations needed to attend this event.

Breakfast is provided. At the end of the program, we will ask you for support, but there is no minimum or maximum donation required to attend

Washtenaw Literacy provides free literacy support for adults 16+ through a network of trained volunteer tutors who partner with learners to help them build skills and realize their full potential. We believe literacy is a basic human right and the foundation for a just, equitable, and inclusive community.
