

LISTENING LEVEL 1

Adult learners will begin to listen and understand the spoken word in various situations.

Benchmarks On exit of this level, learner is able to:	Applications Examples of how/where learners will use this skill:	I do it well enough	I want to work on it	I don't need to work on this now
Demonstrate and respond to simple commands.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand and follow simple oral directions, such as: "Turn right." "Turn left." Respond to one and two-step directions, such as: "Take a marker or chalk and write your name." "Open your book and turn to page 12." Point to the top of the page. Point to the title of the story.
Demonstrate and understand the question words: who, what, when, where, why and how.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Answer questions such as: "What is the story about?" "What does she do?" "Where is he going?" "Where is the story taking place?"
Demonstrate and understand simple words, phrases, and questions.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify signs: "restroom", "caution", "road work". Answer personal information questions, such as: "What is your address?" "What is your telephone number?" "What is your birth date?" "What is your place of birth?" "What is your social security number?" "How many years did you go to school?"
Demonstrate understanding of socially acceptable communications.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Respond to standard polite expressions for greeting and leaving, such as: "How are you feeling today?" Respond to a message on an answering machine. Identify yourself on the telephone and state purpose for call.
Demonstrate ability to discriminate phonetic sounds.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify sounds of each alphabet letter. Identify initial, middle and ending sounds in a word. Recognize rhyming words. Recognize consonant and vowel sounds. Determine the number of syllables in two or three syllable words.
Take dictation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Write simple spelling words. Write a sentence from dictation. Write a cloze passage.

Name: _____

Date: _____